

Benefits Counselor Job Description

Job Description

Pierce Group Benefits has an opportunity for Benefits Counselors to communicate and enroll our benefits to the employees of over 220 for our existing Clients. Pierce Group Benefits currently administers employee benefits to over 170,000 public sector employees in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia. Great opportunity for pre-tirement professionals not looking to fully retire.

What we provide for you that makes us different:

- Existing Accounts (no prospecting!)
- Safe work environment with daytime hours
- Expert training from a nationally recognized team
- Latest Technology
- Superior Support Materials
- Exceptional Customer Service

What we need from you:

- Positive attitude
- Commitment
- Time management
- Competitiveness
- Coach-ability
- Eager to learn
- Multitasking

What we require:

- The ability to work 8-10 hr. day
- Dependable laptop and internet service
- Dependable phone service/voicemail
- High school diploma or equivalent is required
- Active Health/Life license preferred
- Travel involved – must have reliable transportation

Compensation

- This is a commission position with no limit as to the compensation you receive (including bonuses). We equip you with the best trainers and support to enable you to accomplish your financial goals.

If you are qualified and interested, please forward your resume to jobs@piercergroupbenefits.com.